DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 07/30/02 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Claim 1, Applicant argues, 'Tanaka does not disclose the event manager responsible for delivery a message within the device where an object within the device can exchange a message with an unspecified destination without any discrimination between outside and inside the device by simply exchanging a message with the event manager in a one-to-one communication.'

In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., the event manager responsible for delivery a message within the device where an object within the device can exchange a message with an unspecified destination without any discrimination between outside and inside the device by simply exchanging a message with the event manager in a one-to-one communication) are not recited in the rejected claim(s). Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

Applicant further argues, "Tanaka does not disclose, teach or suggest the event manager for delivering the broadcast message within the device."

In response, the Examiner respectfully disagrees and cites Col. 2, lines 60-65 and Col. 3, lines 40-42 because Tanaka discloses the event manager (CPU of the 2nd device) delivers the broadcast message within the device (delivers the function A'-E' received from the first device within the 2nd device). Thus Tanaka meets the claimed limitation.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

1. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being unpatentable by Tanaka et al. (US 5420573).

Regarding claim 1, an information signal transmission device (Fig. 1, First and second AV devices) connected to a network C, for transmitting an information signal (function A-E and A'-E'), the device comprising:

Information broadcasting (Fig. 1, First AV device, element 9; Col. 2, lines 40-48) means for broadcasting a message (function A'-E') to the network C (Col.3, lines 32-39);

Information receiving (Fig. 1, 2nd AV device, element 16) means for receiving a message (function A'-E') broadcast to the network C (Col. 3, lines 38-40)

An event manager (Fig. 1, element 15; Col. 2, lines 60-65 and Col. 3, lines 40-42) for delivering the broadcast message within the device (AV device 2).

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
